COMPANY,

Calhoun and Columbia Sts

A PECULIAR accident happened recently at Bowman, Ga. A 7-year-old boy, while playing in a cotton gin, was caught in the shafting and horribly, probably fatally, mangled. Two hours later a young man went to see how the accident happened, and while examining the gin was caught by the same shafting at the same place. His hand was torn to pieces and his arm was broken in three places.

ESCAPED HANGING!

A Mob Catch a Murderer But a Minister's Pleadings Saves Him From the Noose.

WATER VALLEY, Miss., Feb. 15.—Wednesday was the stormiest and wildest day that this town has experienced in years. Business has been practically suspended, and the town has been in possession of a mob bent on avenging the murder of James Jenkins, an Illinois Central railroad brakeman. Jenkins was found with his throat cut, and shortly afterward the murderer was arrested. At 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, Harris was given a hearing, and committed without bail.

As he came down from the court house a mob of 300 took him bodily from the officers. Deputy Sheriff Young fired into the crowd, without injury, causing the mob to release Harris. The officers then started with him out of the town. The mob pursued and again took possession of Harris. They were in the woods fastening the rope about the neck of the prisoner, and in the act of pulling it across a limb, when Rev. Mr. Judson, pastor of the Baptist church, addressed them.

He spoke for nearly ten minutes, and so impassioned was his eloquence, that those who had cried out to hang him said, "take the murderer to jail, and let the law do its work."

It was nearly 1 p. m., when Harris was placed in jail. An hour later the sheriff brought him out to take him to the county jail at Coffeyville, when another, but ineffectual attempt was made to lynch him, but the pleading of the minister and other citizens assisted the officers in safely landing the prisoner back in jail.

At 7:30 o'clock the mob broke into the jail, but Harris had been secretly taken to Coffeeville. There is a report current that a mob has started for the county jail and another attempt will be made to lynch the murderer.

CONGRESS.

The Mills Bill, With the Senate Amendments, Comes Up in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The report on the tariff bill, presented to the house this morning, is an elaborate argument in favor of the system of modified protection proposed in the Mills bill and against the senate amendment. The committee presents an argument to show that the substitution of a new measure for the Mills bill was unconstitutional.

In the house to-day the Mills tariff bill, with the senate amendment, was reported back from the committee on ways and means by Mr. Mills. It was referred to the committee of the whole.

Mr. Mills also reported a resolution for consideration, which he said he would ask the house to enter upon to-day, and the resolution declares that the substitutes by the senate are in conflict with the constitution, and that the bill be returned to the senate with the suggestion that, under the constitution, the house is vested with the sole power to originate such a measure.

McKinley, of Ohio, said he reserved the right of the minority to fight for the constitutional objection.

The house by a vote of 149 to 101 sent back to conference, with instructions, the Dakota bill.

The house committee on ways and means will begin at once the preparation of a tariff bill with which to antagonize the internal revenue bill agreed upon by the appropriation committee to-day. The bill will contain the free list of the Mills bill, its wool bill sections, and the internal revenue sections of the Cowles bill.

The president approves the act to authorize the Mount Carmel Development company to draw water from the Wabash river and its tributaries in Wabash county, Illinois.

CHICAGO PUGILISTS.

Eleven Brutal Rounds Are Fought in the Gruden City.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Chicago had a real prize fight last night, and one of the men was whipped. The battle was between James Fleming rnd John Morgan, local pugilists, for $1,000 and a $250 gold watch, and was fought in a barn on South State street.

The men fought eleven vicious rounds. In the eleventh round Morgan went in to win and fought determinedly, but Fleming saw an oppprtuity to get a knock-out blow and put in very nicely. Morgan dropped senseless and when the twelfth round was called he was unable to answer to it.

THE LABOR CONVENTION.

Ends Its Session at Philadelphia—They Will Work for a United Organization.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 15.—The labor conference which was held in this city yesterday has adjourned and will probably not meet again before July. In the meantime all of its members are pledged to help as far as possible towards securing an organization of all the labor federations in America under one head.

Mr. Powderly was asked what the meeting meant. He said that it explained itself. It was simply an effort to join in one union all the trade organizations of the country.

IN COURT.

August Wietersheim Face to Face With Stern Justice.

August Wietersheim, the German adventurer arrested yesterday for obtaining money under false pretenses, waived examination, and the mayor bound him over to trial in the sum of $300. The fellow is anxious for a trial, and there is method in his haste for his past life is coming up to haunt him. In the German papers he has long been published as a swindler, and he possibly fears the expose.

His collections in this city amount to $200 or $300. The largest sums were from the German ministers and teachers.

Late this afternoon, Wietersheim was arraigned in court and pleaded guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The Rev. Mr. Kreite, William Hahn, John Beckstein and other people whom he victimized were present. From Mr. Beckstein he collected $10 and he consented to act as prosecuting witness.

Judge O'Rourke heard all the facts and sentenced Wietersheim to one year in prison.

It is hard on the nobleman to fall after so brilliant a career of crime.

THE RUSSIAN FLAG.

To Be Unfurled to the Breeze on French Territory.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Reports from Ader state that M. Aschenoff's Cossacks expedition has hoisted the Russian flag at Sagallo. Sagallo is French territory.

A BIG PURCHASE.

Herman Berghoff Buys Out Frank Hake.

Mr. Herman Berghoff, the brewer, today purchased from Mr. Frank Hake his business block on Wells street, Bloomingdale, together with his pop and seltzer bottling works, and the good will of his trade.

The price paid was $8,000. Mr. Hake's failing health necessitated the sale.

Kate Claxton.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—Miss Kate Claxton announces that she will permanently retire from the stage in about three weeks. She is forced to take this step by illness, her health being such that it is with difficulty that she plays at all. Her illness is due to a cold contracted while playing in Chicago. Mr. Steyenson, Miss Claxton's husband, will also retire from the stage.

Lodged in Jail.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 15.—William E. Jones, the defaulting cashier of the Continental Oil company, of Denver, Col.; who was arrested in Toronto, on Wednesday, arrived in the city last evening in company with the local agent of the American Surety company, of New York, which concern furnished Jones bonds and was lodged in jail.

Fires.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Feb. 15.—Fire last night completely destroyed Gleckman & Heller's block and its contents. Loss on block, $60,000; insured. Loss on Gleckman's dry goods stock, $45,000, and on L. H. Heller's stock, $34,000. The insurance is not known. A. Moses' loss, $35,000; insurance, $23,000.

Renounces the Priesthood.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 15.—Quite a sensation has been created in Catholic circles by the sudden declaration of Father Dougherty, of the St. Louis diocese, that he has renounced the priesthood, and will locate in Chicago as a practicing physician.

They are Rejoicing.

BISMARCK, Dak., Feb. 15.—The crowd of legislators and lobbyists in this city, was wild with delight last evening over the action of the house in agreeing to admit South Dakota at once.

DEADLY EXPLOSION!

The Boiler of a Locomotive Bursts and Hurls Its Victims Hundreds of Feet Away.

SOUTH BETHLEHAM, Pa., Feb. 15.—The boiler of a freight engine going south on the North Pennsylvania railroad blew up at 6:45 o'clock, this morning, at Centre Valley, instantly killing Fireman Crockett, whose body was blown 500 feet away.

Engineer Frank McGowan was pinned under the wreck and received fatal injuries.

Brakeman Schrock was blown 100 feet and escaped with slight injury. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

OTHER FATALITIES.

CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 15.—A street car was run into this morning, by a train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The car was thrown from the track and four lady passengers severely hurt. One of them, Mrs. J. Shaw, is so seriously injured that her recovery is despaired of. The driver of the car was also badly hurt. The car was completely wrecked.

NATURAL GAS.

Bluffton Debating the Question of Where to Get It.

The Bluffton Bugle says:

"That Bluffton will pipe natural gas this year is now an assured fact. The only thing remaining is to decide on the cheapest and best place to get it. The Salamonie Gas company filed a bond of $50,000 with the Fort Wayne city council to pipe gas to that city by November 1st, 1889. The mains will be laid along the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad and through Bluffton. The question now is whether to obtain it from this company or from Camden parties. L. C. Davenport, Hugh Dougherty and L. A. Williamson, the committee appointed, went to Fort Wayne, Tuesday evening, and Wednesday morning had a long and satisfactory talk with Wm. Fleming, president of the Salamonia company. At the council meeting last night, gas was the principal topic, and L. S. Kapp, J. W. Tribolet, W. A. Gutelius, John North and C. M. Miller were appointed as a committee to confer with the Camden company, and report at a citizens' meeting, to be held next Thursday night. Every citizen of Bluffton should attend this meeting and hear what those informed have to say."

HOME GOSSIP.

Mary Stack to-day qualified as guardian of the heirs of Mary Stack.

Postmaster Kaough and his staff are now cosily located in the new postoffice, and do business as of yore.

The case of Wm. Anderson for assault on Calvin Thomas, was heard by the circuit court jury to-day and they are now deliberating. The parties live in Lake township.

Mr. Will Friend, the actor, writes his brother, Mr. Al Friend, from London, to say that they are playing to great success. Mr. Friend has earned a reputation on two continents.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Sewing society of the Second Presbyterian church, held at the residence of Mrs. H. V. Root, yesterday afternoon, it was decided that they would hold a festival and fair in the old church building just before it was removed from its present site; also that they would have the building, which is an old land mark, photographed and sell them as souvenirs, the receipts of which will go toward furnishing the new church to be erected on the site of the old one.

The South Bend Times has this personal mention: "Rev. Traugott Thieme, the new pastor of the German Lutheran St. Paul's church, corner of Jefferson and William streets, favored this office with a pleasant call this morning. Mr. Thieme is a son of the well known Fort merchant, J. G. Thieme, and a graduate of Concordia college. He is a fine appearing, intelligent gentlemen of perhaps thirty-five, and expresses himself delighted with South Bend. He and his family reside at No. 505 South Taylor street.

ABUSED A LAD.

Peter Greff, a Washington Township Constable, is Accused.

This morning, an aged woman, holding by the hand a boy seven or eight years old, appeared at the police station. She spoke in the German tongue and related that Peter Greff, a constable in Washington township, had made a demand for the custody of his step-son, the lad in question, and the woman asked police interference.

The boy charges that Greff is cruel to him and bears the marks of the man's violence about his person. To escape punishment the little fellow fled to the care of his aunt, Mrs. Olinski, of Smith street, and she appeals for protection.

Marshal Meyer is interesting himself in the case.

VERY ELEGANT.

The Morton Club Reception in That Line of Entertainments.

The Morton club gave another of its regular receptions and it was indeed a brilliant affair. A conversazione and musical program in the club parlors served to make the early hours of the evening delightful, and the dance, of course, was a feature.

President Laubach was disappointed in some of his musical attractions, but provided entertainment for the notable assembly in other ways, and is giving the club social fame.

The attendance was very large, and as select and stylish as usual.

Those present from abroad were: Miss Ball, Syracuse, N. Y.; Miss Celeste Gaylord, San Antonio, Texas; Miss Aggie Ross, Detroit, Mich.; Miss Winnis, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Flanders, Marshall, Mich.; Miss Taft, Huntington.

THE C. T. A.

A Very Novel Feast at the Y. M. C. A. Parlors.

The "C. T." given by the ladies' auxilliary of the Y. M. C. A. last evening was liberally patronized.

To the uniniated, quite a mystery surrounded the letters, "C. T.;" but this was at once dispelled upon entering the City Y. M. C. A. parlors, for there were tables laden with good things, such as would cause the inner man to shout with joy; while upon each table was placed a bill of fare, printed upon a letter "C" cut out from card board and attractively decorated with ribbons. Each article on the menu begun with the letter "C," and was cleverly concocted, conclusive, comprehensive and cautious.

A WOMAN SCORNED!

She Goes to Prison to Shield Her Husband From Murder, but Turns on Him When He Seeks a Divorce.

MARION, Ind., Feb. 15.—John Sage, charged with aiding and abetting the murder of Harry Albert Cunningham, the illegitimate two-year-old son of Eliza Cunningham, seven years ago, was found guilty of murder in the first degree, here yesterday, and his punishment was fixed at life imprisonment.

A petition will be circulated asking for the pardon of the mother of the child, who drowned it at Sage's behest, and afterwards married him, and when exposure came, assumed all the blame, and went to prison for life. She exposed her husband when he asked for a divorce.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The German Building and Loan Association Choose Officers for This Year.

The German Building Loan association No. 4, held its annual meeting last evening at the Custer house, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Otto Nichter.
Secretary, Henry Zur Muehlen.
Treasurer, A. Fuelber.
Directors, Henry Wellman, H. Hesemeyer, D. Broecking, Joseph Nichter, E. H. Meyer and Christian Rippe.

The association is one of the most prosperous in the city, and the year opens favorable for an even brighter record.

To The Business Public.

B. A. E. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15. 1889.

HON. C. A. O. MCCLELLAN, the congressman elect from this district will attend the inauguration exercises at Washington on the fourth of March.

GOVERNOR HOVEY yesterday signed the bill appropriating $187,500 for the completion of the school for feeble minded youth, at this city, and the measure is now a law.

MRS. NAOMI LAMBERTH, of Lafayette, has instituted suit against William P. Kirkpatrick for breach of promise, claiming $6,000 damages. It is expensive to trifle with the affections of a widow.

THE Goshen band starts on the 18th of this month for Florida, where they have an engagement for four weeks. The City band, a better organization in every way, must content themselves with a concert. This is not a world of just appreciation.

THE Columbia City Commercial is advocating the construction of gravel roads for Whitley county. All the counties about us are waking up to the necessity of gravel roads, but Allen county trudges in the mud or on toll roads forever.

THE old time Canada Southern railroal route is being revived. A new organization is being formed and the right of way is being purchased west from Montpelier, Ohio. Lagrange, Wolcottville, Kendallville and Rome City are the expectant ones to get the line through their respective towns.

THE dates of prominent Ohio and Indiana fairs are given below: Montpelier, Ohio, beginning Sept. 16th; South Bend, Ind., beginning Sept. 16th; Hicksville, Ohio, beginning Sept. 24th; Angola, Ind., beginning Sept. 24th; Kendallville, Ind., beginning Sept. 30th; Waterloo, Ind., beginning Oct. 7th Ligonier, Ind., beginning Oct. 8th.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND seems to be in bad temper towards the Indiana democracy. Besides removing Judge Edgerton, Colonel John Lee, of Crawfordsville, has been summarily removed as superintendent of Indian schools in the far west, and now comes the report that A. J. Kelley, of Terre Haute, has been notified to vacate the position of chief of the assignment division of the patent office on the 15th inst.

THE Gazette is making much ado about the arrest of Mr. Charles Droeger for illegal voting. THE SENTINEL did not know the young man's politics, nor has it an idea who prosecuted him, but if he is as innocent as the Gazette insists, and we hope he is, the young gentleman will experience no trouble before Judge Woods. The attempt to enlarge his arrest into a "democratic outrage" is rather ethereal, since not a half dozen people know anything about the case.

THE Fort Wayne representatives at Indianapolis should enter a vigorous protest against some of the private appropriation jobs advanced in the legislature. There, for instance, is that little scheme which is being pushed by hired attorneys in the legislature for an appropriation to cut out a ledge of rock and let off the water that makes the Kankakee region swampy. The new owners of the thousands of acres of land could well afford to make this improvement themselves, if it will prove such a great boon as it is claimed. Why should the state appropriate $40,000 that will enable such speculators to make a million?

THE Gazette says it did not regard Senator Barrett's letter as intended for publication and gives, as a further reason for not immediately considering it, that Senator Barrett did not enclose a copy of his bill, as he stated he would. The Gazette, of course, is at liberty to regard Senator Barrett's communication in the light of a private letter, that is a privilege, but the argument that he did not enclose a copy of the bill will not avail since the Gazette published it in full together with the present law two weeks ago and the editor could have referred to the files of his own paper if he desired to consult the measure. THE SENTINEL was not hasty in the matter nor in the least discourteous. We must commend the Gazette in insisting that there should be no politics in considering the proposed law.

THE Philadelphia Times insists that Colonel Dudley must find a new residence. He was a resident of Indiana until he was wanted for writing the "floaters in blocks of five" letter. Then he lived in New York awhile. In an evil hour he sued three newspapers of that city for libel for publishing the "floater" letter as his. The aforesaid newspapers obtained orders to examine Mr. Dudley himself before answering to his charge of libel. Mr. Dudley didn't want to be examined and went to Washington to live. One of the newspapers then asked for an oral commission to issue to Washington to examine Mr. Dudley. Judge O'Brien decided yesterday that the commission must issue. Mr. Dudley might go to Alaska next. The chance of bringing those libel suits and running away from them is not an extraordinary one.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Some of the Measures Yesterday Explained at Some Length.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—The new rule limiting speeches on all questions to five minutes was rigidly enforced in the senate yesterday morning, and the presiding officer's gavel fell with a dull thud upon the marble slab before him as a signal to stop while several speakers were giving utterances to their best sentences.

The Supreme Court Commission Bill.

The house bill to create a supreme court commission came before the senate after the election bill had been passed yesterday morning, with a committee report recommending that it be passed. A minority report adverse to it was presented. Senator Johnson said the bill was another partisan measure. It was unconstitutional and unnecessary. The constitution plainly says that there shall not be more than five supreme court judges. It made no difference if the men who were given juducial power by the legislature were called commissioners instead of judges. If they were to be merely amanuenses the bill might be constitutional, but if that was the intention why were they each to be paid $4,000 a year, the same salary allowed the supreme judges, in addition to which they were to have messengers and other help. He had himself introduced a bill which would provide such service at a cost of $1,500. If these commissioners were to decide cases and assume the functions of judges there could be no doubt of the unconstitutionality of such a bill.

Langstaff's Eight Hour Bill Passes.

Mr. Langstaff's bill to make eight hours constitute a legal day's work for all classes of mechanics and laborers, excepting those engaged in agricultural or domestic labor, was passed by the house yesterday morning. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of the act may be fined $500. Overwork for extra compensation, by agreement between employer and employe, is permitted, but where more than eight hours of labor is exacted or received without such agreement, the penalty may be imposed. There was no discussion of the bill.

Against Local Option.

Local option met its fate in the house. A few days ago Mr. Reynolds succeeded in getting his bill on the calendar as a special order for the morning. There were two reports, majority and minority, upon it. The majority, of course, was against it. Mr. Wilson moved the substitution of the majority report and demanded the previous question, but Mr. Reynolds, the author of the bill was allowed to speak. He declared that, although it might be defeated in this legislature, the time was not far distant when the people would elect representatives who would give them the power to prohibit the liquor traffic. The majority report recommending the indefinite postponement of the bill was adopted by a vote of fifty-five to forty-one, two republicans, Covert and Nugent, of Evansville, voting with the democrats.

Sheriff's Shall Appoint Court Bailiffs.

Senator Foley's bill to amend the revised statutes so as to give the sheriff, instead of the judge, the power to appoint bailiffs for the circuit, superior and criminal courts, was engrossed in the senate Wednesday afternoon. In explaining the purpose of the bill Senator Foley admitted that it was introduced because the republican judges in Marion county had appointed new bailiffs in place of democrats.

Proposed Rental Rates For Telephones.

Mr. Foster's telephone bill has been reported upon favorably by the senate committee on judiciary. It proposes to limit the rental charges for telephones as follows: Towns and cities having a population not exceeding 10,000, in residences $3, in factories $4 and in all other places $3.50. In cities having a population of more than 10,000 and not exceeding 20,000, in residences $3, in factories $4.50 and in all other places of business $3.50. In cities having a population of more than 20,000 and less than 40,000, in residence $3,50, in factories $5 and in all other places of business $4. And in cities having a population of over 40,000, in residences $4, in factories $6 and in all other places of business $5.

The bill passed by a decisive vote, only twenty-six against it.

Caucus Action on Two Bills.

The democratic members of the house last night resolved to caucus not to change the present laws relating to the teaching of German in the public schools, and to pass the bill repealing sections 2,126 and 2,127 of the revised statutes, which make it unlawful to intimidate any man from working or to interfere with the running of trains.

Division of the Legal Printing.

Senator Hudson has introduced a bill which proposes that all legal advertising in each county shall be divided between the two leading partisan papers, but that not more than one-half the present legal rates shall be paid to each publisher.

Legislative Notes.

Mr. Mandenhall introduced in the house a bill requiring the superintendents of poor asylums to send pauper children to township schools.

The house passed a concurrent resolution authorizing the state auditor to pay warrents for light, water and other incidental expenses of the general assembly not exceeding $2,200.

The house under a suspension of the rules, finally passed the senate bill appropriating $187,500 for the construction of new buildings for the School for Feeble Minded Children, and when it receives the signature of the governor, the trustees may proceed to carry out their building plans.

Mr. Shambaugh's supreme court reporter bill was taken up and ordered engrossed. Mr. Shambaugh explained the bill. He showed that it would be a saving to the state of $10,000 a year. Mr. Cullum was afraid that the reports could not be published for $1.50 per volume. Mr. Willard held up a copy of the revised statutes which he said was published by the state under contract for $1.12.

The public health committee reported favorably the bill to give health officers juris diction for two miles from their towns.

The fees and salaries committee reported favorably on the bill to appoint a custodian of public property.

The Beaver lake land bill failed to pass for a lack of a constitutional majority.

MR. OPPENHEIM.

He Attacks the Telephone Company in the House Yesterday.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says:

Mr. Oppenheim, one of the solid men on the democratic side, fought the repeal bill. He said that this bill involved the question whether the Bell telephone company was greater than the state of Indiana. The committee on judiciary reported a bill which allows the telephone people the same rates that they claim they will charge if the law is repealed, but they do not want it. They want no restriction whatever. There is no railroad corporation of any kind coming into this state without being controlled by the state in some manner. "If $3 is too low, we are willing to raise it," said he, "but they arrogantly come to us and say, 'we will not be controlled.'" Continuing Mr. Oppenheim said:

"They have been running in this state fourteen years, yet they cannot tell us what sum they make, and they say we cannot control them in this matter. They say defiantly to us: 'We will take nothing from you but unconditional surrender.' This company is after the legislatures of Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Michigan and other northern states. Mr. Davis asks what has the Ohio legislature done. Passed a law favoring the telephone by one majority. But, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, I care not what Ohio does, so we do what is just. In New York City this unrestricted monopoly has been charging from $12 to $15 per month, when they have put them in for $5 a month. It is not a question of reason, right or wrong with them, but how much can we charge the people for telephones. They took their instruments from the small towns because they claim that they were losing money, but in Fort Wayne they allowed the newspapers to use them free of charge. In the town of Elkhart the Bell telephone was taken out and the Cushman company were going to place their instruments there, but at the instance of the Bell company the United States circuit enjoined the Cushman, so preventing any telephone service there. I will never vote to repeal a law in the interest of the Bell company."

REV. C. A. JOHNSON announces that as a result of much study, "in just thirty-two years from now the electricity stored in the earth will come in contact with the heated matter inside and blow the whole world up." Mr. Johnson is an eligible candidate for an insane asylum.

One Fact

Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

Free from alcohol and opium; composed of expensive herbs and roots, with a fine, delicate flavoring.

MR. H. W. SIMONS.

He Wins Quite a Victory Over His Plymouth Neighbors.

The Plymouth Democrat has this gossip:

"A meeting was held at the city hall, last Saturday evening, to protest against the acceptance by the council of the proposition of M. W. Simons to light the city at the rate of $2,000 per year, as a result of which four remonstrances, signed in all, by eighty citizens, were presented to the council at its meeting Monday evening. Notwithstanding the protest the proposition was accepted and contract entered into for a term of three years at the above figure. During the year ending February 16, the city was lighted better than ever before in its history for $1,500, which at the time the contract was made was considered very reasonable."

PARIS MONUMENTS.

Monument building is one of the great industries of Paris. There has been no time in two or three centuries when Paris was not building a monument to some distinguished man.

L'Arc de Triomphe, built by Napoleon to commemorate himself, is the most conspicuous example, of course. Before that he caused a column to be erected in the Place du Chatelet to keep in memory his early victories in Italy and Egypt. And what is the Vendome Column, wrough from cannon captured from Russians and Austrians, but a monument to the distinguished Corsican?

The Hotel des Invalides, a soldiers' hospital and home, is a monument to Louis XIV., for he originated and endowed it. So great is the passion among the French for monuments that in the Revolution they converted a grand and imposing church, Ste. Genevieve, into the Pantheon—the name it yet bears—a tomb for "the great men whom France delights to honor," as the inscription reads. Voltaire and Rousseau were entombed there, but when the Bourbons were restored to power their bones were hustled out with little ceremony, and buried, God knows where. Victor Hugo was the last great man to find sepulture there.

On the rue Rivoli, on the spot where Jeanne Darc fell wounded while assailing one of the city's gates, is an equestrian statute of the Anna Dickinson of her day.

Among the later monuments that have been erected is one to Alexander Dumas, pere, who occupies a comfortable arm-chair on a big mass of granite, and has an easy, rollicking air, quite consonant with one's idea of the man who wrote so delightfully of d'Artignan and his fellow mousquitiers.

There is a mortuary pyramid faced by a statue of Gambetta in the Place du Carrousel, but it won't remain long after the Republic disappears. Lamertine has a monument in Passy, near a little chalet given him by the municipality of Paris, in which he died miserably and almost forgotten.

A statue of Victor Hugo adorns a carrefor on Avenue d'Eylan, not fa from the house in which he breathed his last, and it is proposed to honor the memory of Balzac in a similar way. France builds monuments to her great men when she sets out to do it, but we make a big talk about it immediately after a great man's death, start a monument fund, and that is the last of it.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, or pneumonia, Hood's Sarsaparilla will give strength to the system, and expel all poison from the blood.

PEARLINE

From the start, the shadows have read, Pyle's Pearline is mightier than soap, muscle and washboard combined. It is the modern soap. Nowadays one cannot afford to reject a new idea because it promises "big things." These are days of "big things." Wide awake men and women are looking for them. She who refuses the aid of PEARLINE is behind the times—far behind. She might as well reject the comfort and aid of the steam car—sewing machine—telegraph—electric light, etc., because she does not believe in them. Millions appreciate Pearline, and have for years. Millions more will appreciate it—you will—why not begin at once to use it. Its prodigious popularity proves its merit—you have everything to gain, nothing to lose, therefore try it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, but sold by all good grocers. 136 Manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York

HER MAJESTY'S EMPIRE.

Every boy and girl has heard that the sun never sets on the British Empire, and the statement is literally true. The Empress Victoria's dominions extend around the globe in a ring, so nearly unbroken that the sun is continually rising on some portion while it is setting on another.

England has the faculty of acquisitiveness largely developed, and when she desires to extend her empire she has a free-and-easy way of extending it, which elicits amazement if not admiration from the civilized world. And this process of extention is continually going on.

Within a few years Fiji has become British; and so have enormous provinces on the northwestern frontier of India and the whole kingdom of Upper Burmah. The foundations have been laid for a great colony in Borneo, which will one day probably absorb the whole island.

Half the great island of New Guinea, almost a continent in extent, has become de jure, if not de facto, the territory of the Queen. Great tracts of land, including the whole of Zululand, have been acquired in South Africa. Advance has been made on the Congo. Egypt is in English control. Berber and Khartoum seem likely to become British. Cyprus will hardly return to Turkey, and in South America British possessions have been extended.—Golden Days.

PHILADELPHIA'S pet hippopotamus was treated to a Turkish bath the other day to cure a cold, and the report of the attending physician is that the experiment was a grand success. Every well-equipped menagerie will travel hereafter with a Turkish bath attachment for the hippopotamus, and for a small fee the wondering patrons of the show will be permitted to s e the animal in its great act of sweating rivers of blood whenever it has caught a cold.

It is a fact that there is not an ounce of Pond's Extract sold which is not put up in their own bottles by Pond's Extract Co. It cannot be bought except in the company's bottles. No druggist can make it. No druggist can "put it up" for you. The only way to get the real Pond's Extract is to buy a bottle with the company's strip over the cork, their name blown in the glass, and their landscape trade mark on the buff wrapper. Any druggist who would deceive you about this by selling you a cheap, spurious imitation as Pond's Extract, saying that he "buys it and puts it in bottles himself," is not a safe man to sell medicine or anything else.

A NEBRASKA man has just died from the bite of a mule, says the Carthage (Mo.) Democrat. It adds: This is the first actual proof we have that the mule's bite is as deadly as his sting.

"What Drug Will Scour These English Hence"?

Wicked Macbeth, who murdered good King Duncan, asked this question in his despair. Thousands of victims of disease are daily asking "What will scour the impurities from my blood and bring me health"? Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do it. When the purple life tide is sluggish, causing drowsiness, headache and loss of appetite, use this wonderful vitalizer, which never fails. It forces the liver into perfect action, drives out superfluous bile, brings the glow of health to the cheek and the natural sparkle to the eye. All druggists.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

CURES FOOT ROT, SHOULDER-BOIL, SCREW-WORM AND SCAB IN SHEEP!

The three wise men of Gotham
Would not have been so wise,
Had they not sought
for knowledge,
And used their ears
and eyes
In getting information
Of every sort and kind,
Instead of going through the world
Like men both deaf and blind.

And you can be as wise as they,
If you but choose to buy
The Soap that's called the SANTA CLAUS—
Its good effects to try.
Because 'twill help you through your work
At such a rapid rate,
That you'll have time to master all you care to undertake.

All Grocers sell SANTA CLAUS SOAP.

TAR-OID

NATURE HAS NO BETTER REMEDY

Than this New Compound of Tar for Wounds, Burns, Sores, Piles, Salt Rheum, Eczema, and Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Bronchitis, and Consumption.

TAR-OID must not be confounded with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Skin Diseases are caused by impure blood, which is not true. They have their cause in a want of vital action in the skin. TAR-OID restores this action, hence it cures every form of Skin Disease, also sores, burns, etc. It is soothing and wonderfully healing—gratifying results follow in every case. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

TAR-OID is a sure cure for piles. It never fails. We warrant a cure or refund the money. It gives immediate relief. It is perfectly safe, yet powerful in its action.

The fifth annual concert of the Fort Wayne City band, will be held at the Masonic Temple next Wednesday night, and from present indications it will be the most successful of the series of musical entertainments given by this popular organization. The soloists are Fred Austin, cornet soloist, late with Gilmore, and Wm. Moebius, violin soloist, late of the famous Bilse orchestra, of Berlin, and afterwards soloist at the Crystal Palace, London. Both gentlemen have national reputations and their coming here is a matter for congratulation. The sale of seats has been gratifyingly large and there is every reason to believe that the Temple will be crowded to the doors on the night of the concert. Everybody in Fort Wayne takes a just pride in its superb musical organization, which has the reputation of being the best in the state and which asks for the support of our citizens only in this way, and that but once a year. THE SENTINEL hopes that they will have to turn people away and that the concert will be the huge success it deserves to be.

A novelty in the way of legislation is announced from South Australia. "Boys under eighteen years of age dare not smoke!" and everybody, when they catch cold, have to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, as the legislators regard it the only safe remedy for coughs and colds.

Master Mechanic Potter went to Chicago last night.

Henry Brockman, of the Bass works, went home sick yesterday.

The Pittsburg road pays its employes to-morrow. This is the big pay day of the month.

Captain J. P. Powers, of Toledo, passenger agent of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday.

Harry Polhamus, clerk in the road foreman's office of the Pittsburg, is attending the funeral of his grandmother, at Valparaiso, to-day.

Engineer Jackson says that the Lafayette collision was caused by the failure of the brakes on the engine of the limited to hold the train.

The baby born in a Pullman car, last week, has been named Pullman Conant. One of the Pullmans gave the mother $50 as a starter for the young man.

W. H. Baker, the machinist at the Pittsburg works, has postponed his visits to Bloomingdale, on account of the ghost that haunts that suburb.

D. O'Connor, of the Pittsburg machine shops, who had been absent for several days on account of sickness, returned to work again this morning.

Some of the brass stolen Wednesday night, from the Wabash road, was found yesterday, near the Kerr Murray foundry. There is yet no clue to the thieves.

Henry Boedeker, of the Bass works, had his foot badly injured yesterday by a car wheel dropping on it, and he will be confined to his home for several days.

Two prominent young railroad clerks have been notified to stop frequenting Bloomingdale. We narrated the other day the danger that faced a young man who visited that suburb.

Assistant Foreman Scheid, of the Pittsburg machine shops, had his foot operated on yesterday by Dr. Myers. He is now improving, and the men hope to see him on duty again in a few days.

It is stated that the Pennsylvania company will test, on the main line, steel rail weighing 100 pounds to the yard, the heaviest rail now in use east of Pittsburg being eighty-five pounds to the yard.

Henry Eix, of the Bass blacksmith shops, was burned quite badly about the eye yesterday, by red hot scales from a molten piece of iron, which he was pounding, flying into his face. He will be kept from duty for several days.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has purchased but two railroads this week—one the Bell Gap road, twenty-five miles in length, and the other the Clearfield and Jefferson road, thirty-five miles in length. Both roads lead to extensive and valuable coal fields.

Anthony Jeretzki, of the Bass works, has returned to work after a two days' absence, on account of sickness. He has worked for the firm for three years and has not been absent from duty before, even for a single day. He is one of the most industrious men at the Bass works.

Yesterday was the last day that the Wabash road sold thousand-mile tickets at $20, and they went off in a lively manner, the scalpers loading themselves with as many as they could get hold of. Some of the passenger men say that raising the price of these tickets from $20 to $25 is only a scheme adopted by the Wabash to dispose of a large quantity of them.

Mr. Israel, the traveling passenger agent of the Illinois Central, was at the Pittsburg office last evening, calling on Ticket Agent Ross. While he was there a passenger giving his name as "Mr. Lazarus" stepped up to the window to secure a sleeping berth on the fast train. Israel didn't know the passenger, but his name justified him in seeking an introduction and the two strangers passed a pleasant time together.

AN INSTRUCTION CAR.

The Pennsylvania company has just turned out of its shops at Altoona, an instruction car for the traveling exemplification of the Westinghouse appliances. It is sixty-eight feet long, and finished in standard Pennsylvania style. Under one end of the car is a four-wheeled truck, and under the other a six-wheeled [illegible] has been fitted up, and in [illegible] room is found a complete [illegible] everything pertaining to [illegible] is the purpose to have [illegible] over the different railroads, [illegible] its working and instructing [illegible] the practical handling of [illegible] appliances.

A PECULIAR accident happened recently at Bowman, Ga. A 7-year-old boy, while playing in a cotton gin, was caught in the shafting and horribly, probably fatally, mangled. Two hours later a young man went to see how the accident happened, and while examining the gin was caught by the same shafting at the same place. His head was torn to pieces and his arm was broken in three places.

ESCAPED HANGING!

A Mob Catch a Murderer But a Minister's Pleadings Saves Him From the Noose.

WATER VALLEY, Miss., Feb. 15.—Wednesday was the stormiest and wildest day that this town has experienced in years. Business has been practically suspended, and the town has been in possession of a mob bent on avenging the murder of James Jenkins, an Illinois Central railroad brakeman. Jenkins was found with his throat cut, and shortly afterward the murderer was arrested. At 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, Harris was given a hearing, and committed without bail.

As he came down from the court house a mob of 300 took him bodily from the officers. Deputy Sheriff Young fired into the crowd, without injury, causing the mob to release Harris. The officers then started with him out of the town. The mob pursued and again took possession of Harris. They were in the woods fastening the rope about the neck of the prisoner, and in the act of pulling it across a limb, when Rev. Mr. Judson, pastor of the Baptist church, addressed them.

He spoke for nearly ten minutes, and so impassioned was his eloquence, that those who had cried out to hang him said, "take the murderer to jail, and let the law do its work."

It was nearly 1 p. m., when Harris was placed in jail. An hour later the sheriff brought him out to take him to the county jail at Coffeyville, when another, but ineffectual attempt was made to lynch him, but the pleading of the minister and other citizens assisted the officers in safely landing the prisoner back in jail.

At 7:30 o'clock the mob broke into the jail, but Harris had been secretly taken to Coffeeville. There is a report current that a mob has started for the county jail and another attempt will be made to lynch the murderer.

CONGRESS.

The Mills Bill, With the Senate Amendments, Comes Up in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The report on the tariff bill, presented to the house this morning, is an elaborate argument in favor of the system of modified protection proposed in the Mills bill and against the senate amendment. The committee presents an argument to show that the substitution of a new measure for the Mills bill was unconstitutional.

In the house to-day the Mills tariff bill, with the senate amendment, was reported back from the committee on ways and means by Mr. Mills. It was referred to the committee of the whole.

Mr. Mills also reported a resolution for consideration, which he said he would ask the house to enter upon to-day, and the resolution declares that the substitutes by the senate are in conflict with the constitution, and that the bill be returned to the senate with the suggestion that, under the constitution, the house is vested with the sole power to originate such a measure.

McKinley, of Ohio, said he reserved the right of the minority to fight for the constitutional objection.

The house by a vote of 149 to 101 sent back to conference, with instructions, the Dakota bill.

The house committee on ways and means will begin at once the preparation of a tariff bill with which to antagonize the internal revenue bill agreed upon by the appropriation committee to-day. The bill will contain the free list of the Mills bill, its wool bill sections, and the internal revenue sections of the Cowles bill.

The president approves the act to authorize the Mount Carmel Development company to draw water from the Wabash river and its tributaries in Wabash county, Illinois.

CHICAGO PUGILISTS.

Eleven Brutal Rounds Are Fought in the Gruden City.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Chicago had a real prize fight last night, and one of the men was whipped. The battle was between James Fleming and John Morgan, local pugilists, for $1,000 and a $250 gold watch, and was fought in a barn on South State street.

The men fought eleven vicious rounds. In the eleventh round Morgan went in to win and fought determinedly, but Fleming saw an opportunity to get a knock-out blow and put in very nicely. Morgan dropped senseless and when the twelfth round was called he was unable to answer to it.

THE LABOR CONVENTION.

Ends Its Session at Philadelphia—They Will Work for a United Organization.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 15.—The labor conference which was held in this city yesterday has adjourned and will probably not meet again before July. In the meantime all of its members are pledged to help as far as possible towards securing an organization of all the labor federations in America under one head.

Mr. Powderly was asked what the meeting meant. He said that it explained itself. It was simply an effort to join in one union all the trade organizations of the country.

IN COURT.

August Wiesenheim Face to Face With Stern Justice.

August Wiesenheim, the German adventurer arrested yesterday for obtaining money under false pretenses, waived examination, and the mayor bound him over to trial in the sum of $300. The fellow is anxious for a trial, and there is method in his haste for his past life is coming up to haunt him. In the German papers he has long been published as a swindler, and he possibly fears the expose.

His collections in this city amount to $200 or $300. The largest sums were from the German ministers and teachers.

Late this afternoon, Wiesenheim was arraigned in court and pleaded guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

The Rev. Mr. Kreite, William Hahn, John Beckstein and other people whom he victimized were present. From Mr. Beckstein he collected $10 and he consented to act as prosecuting witness.

Judge O'Rourke heard all the facts and sentenced Wiesenheim to one year in prison.

It is hard on the nobleman to fall after so brilliant a career of crime.

THE RUSSIAN FLAG.

To Be Unfurled to the Breeze on French Territory.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Reports from Aden state that M. Aschenoff's Cossacks expedition has hoisted the Russian flag at Sagallo. Sagallo is French territory.

A BIG PURCHASE.

Herman Borgher Buys Out Frank Hake.

Mr. Herman Borgboff, the brewer, today purchased from Mr. Frank Hake his business block on Wells street, Bloomingdale, together with his pop and seltzer bottling works, and the good will of his trade.

The price paid was $8,000. Mr. Hake's failing health necessitated the sale.

Male Claxton.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—Miss Kate Claxton announces that she will permanently retire from the stage in about three weeks. She is forced to take this step by illness, her health being such that it is with difficulty that she plays at all. Her illness is due to a cold contracted while playing in Chicago. Mr. Stevenson, Miss Claxton's husband, will also retire from the stage.

Lodged in Jail.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 15.—William E. Jones, the defaulting cashier of the Continental Oil company, of Denver, Col., who was arrested in Toronto, on Wednesday, arrived in the city last evening in company with the local agent of the American Surety company, of New York, which concern furnished Jones bonds and was lodged in jail.

Fires.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Feb. 15.—Fire last night completely destroyed Gleckman & Heller's block and its contents. Loss on block, $60,000; insured. Loss on Gleckman's dry goods stock, $45,000, and on L. H. Heller's stock, $34,000. The insurance is not known. A. Moses' loss, $35,000; insurance, $23,000.

Renounces the Priesthood.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 15.—Quite a sensation has been created in Catholic circles by the sudden declaration of Father Dougherty, of the St. Louis diocese, that he has renounced the priesthood, and will locate in Chicago as a practicing physician.

They Are Rejoicing.

BISMARCK, Dak., Feb. 15.—The crowd of legislators and lobbyists in this city, was wild with delight last evening over the action of the house in agreeing to admit South Dakota at once.

DEADLY EXPLOSION!

The Boiler of a Locomotive Bursts and Hurls Its Victims Hundreds of Feet Away.

SOUTH BETHLEHAM, Pa., Feb. 15.—The boiler of a freight engine going south on the North Pennsylvania railroad blew up at 6:45 o'clock, this morning, at Centre Valley, instantly killing Fireman Crockett, whose body was blown 500 feet away.

Engineer Frank McGowan was pinned under the wreck and received fatal injuries.

Brakeman Schrock was blown 100 feet and escaped with slight injury. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

OTHER FATALITIES.

CHESTER, Pa., Feb. 15.—A street car was run into this morning, by a train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The car was thrown from the track and four lady passengers severely hurt. One of them, Mrs. J. Shaw, is so seriously injured that her recovery is despaired of. The driver of the car was also badly hurt. The car was completely wrecked.

NATURAL GAS.

Bluffton Debating the Question of Where to Get It.

The Bluffton Bugle says:

"That Bluffton will pipe natural gas this year is now an assured fact. The only thing remaining is to decide on the cheapest and best place to get it. The Salamonie Gas company filed a bond of $50,000 with the Fort Wayne city council to pipe gas to that city by November 1st, 1889. The mains will be laid along the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad and through Bluffton. The question now is whether to obtain it from this company or from Camden parties. L. C. Davenport, Hugh Dougherty and L. A. Williamson, the committee appointed, went to Fort Wayne, Tuesday evening, and Wednesday morning had a long and satisfactory talk with Wm. Fleming, president of the Solamonie company. At the council meeting last night, gas was the principal topic, and L. S. Kapp, J. W. Tribolet, W. A. Gutelius, John North and C. M. Miller were appointed as a committee to confer with the Camden company, and report at a citizens' meeting, to be held next Thursday night. Every citizen of Bluffton should attend this meeting and hear what those informed have to say."

HOME GOSSIP.

Mary Black to-day qualified as guardian of the heirs of Mary Stack.

Postmaster Keough and his staff are now easily located in the new postoffice, and do business as of yore.

The case of Wm. Anderson for assault on Calvin Thomas, was heard by the circuit court jury to-day and they are now deliberating. The parties live in Lake township.

Mr. Will Friend, the actor, writes his brother, Mr. Al Friend, from London, to say that they are playing to great success. Mr. Friend has earned a reputation on two continents.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Sewing society of the Second Presbyterian church, held at the residence of Mrs. H. V. Root, yesterday afternoon, it was decided that they would hold a festival and fair in the old church building just before it was removed from its present site; also that they would have the building, which is an old land mark, photographed and sell them as souvenirs, the receipts of which will go toward furnishing the new church to be erected on the site of the old one.

The South Bend Times has this personal mention: "Rev. Traugott Thieme, the new pastor of the German Lutheran St. Paul's church, corner of Jefferson and William streets, favored this office with a pleasant call this morning. Mr. Thieme is a son of the well known Fort merchant, J. G. Thieme, and a graduate of Concordia college. He is a fine appearing, intelligent gentlemen of perhaps thirty-five, and expresses himself delighted with South Bend. He and his family reside at No. 305 South Taylor street.

ARRESTED A LAD.

Peter Greff, a Washington Township Constable, is Accused.

This morning, an aged woman, holding by the hand a boy seven or eight years old, appeared at the police station. She spoke in the German tongue and related that Peter Greff, a constable in Washington township, had made a demand for the custody of his stepson, the lad in question, and the woman asked police interference.

The boy charges that Greff is cruel to him and bears the marks of the man's violence about his person. To escape punishment the little fellow fled to the care of his aunt, Mrs. Oliaski, of Smith street, and she appeals for protection.

Marshal Mayer is interesting himself in the case.

VERY ELEGANT.

The Morton Club Reception in That Line of Entertainments.

The Morton club gave another of its regular receptions and it was indeed a brilliant affair. A conversazione and musical program in the club parlors served to make the early hours of the evening delightful, and the dance, of course, was a feature.

President Lautbach was disappointed in some of his musical attractions, but provided entertainment for the notable assembly in other ways, and is giving the club social fame.

The attendance was very large, and as select and stylish as usual.

Those present from abroad were: Miss Ball, Syracuse, N. Y.; Miss Celeste Gaylord, San Antonio, Texas; Miss Aggie Ross, Detroit, Mich.; Miss Winnie, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Miss Flanders, Marshall, Mich.; Miss Taft, Huntington.

THE C. T. A.

A Very Novel Event at the Y. M. C. A. Parlors.

The "C. T." given by the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. last evening was liberally patronized.

To the uninitated, quite a mystery surrounded the letters, "C. T." but this was at once dispelled upon entering the City Y. M. C. A. parlors, for there were tables laden with good things, such as would cause the inner man to shout with joy; while upon each table was placed a bill of fare, printed upon a letter "C" cut out from card board and attractively decorated with ribbons. Each article on the menu began with the letter "C," and was cleverly concealed, conclusive, comprehensive and cautious.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15. 1889.

HON. C. A. O. MCCLELLAN, the congressman elect from this district will attend the inauguration exercises at Washington on the fourth of March.

GOVERNOR HOVEY yesterday signed the bill appropriating $187,500 for the completion of the school for feeble minded youth, at this city, and the measure is now a law.

MRS. NAOMI LAMBERTH, of Lafayette, has instituted suit against William P. Kirkpatrick for breach of promise, claiming $6,000 damages. It is expensive to trifle with the affections of a widow.

THE Goshen band starts on the 18th of this month for Florida, where they have an engagement for four weeks. The City band, a better organization in every way, must content themselves with a concert. This is not a world of just appreciation.

THE Columbia City Commercial is advocating the construction of gravel roads for Whitley county. All the counties about us are waking up to the necessity of gravel roads, but Allen county trudges in the mud or on toll roads forever.

THE old time Canada Southern railroad route is being revived. A new organization is being formed and the right of way is being purchased west from Montpelier, Ohio. Lagrange, Wolcottville, Kendallville and Rome City are the expectant ones to get the line through their respective towns.

THE dates of prominent Ohio and Indiana fairs are given below: Montpelier, Ohio, beginning Sept. 16th; South Bend, Ind., beginning Sept. 16th; Hicksville, Ohio, beginning Sept. 24th; Angola, Ind., beginning Sept. 24th; Kendallville, Ind., beginning Sept. 30th; Waterloo, Ind., beginning Oct. 7th Ligonier, Ind., beginning Oct. 8th.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND seems to be in bad temper towards the Indiana democracy. Besides removing Judge Edgerton, Colonel John Lee, of Crawfordsville, has been summarily removed as superintendent of Indian schools in the far west, and now comes the report that A. J. Kelley, of Terre Haute, has been notified to vacate the position of chief of the assignment division of the patent office on the 15th inst.

THE Gazette is making much ado about the arrest of Mr. Charles Droegor for illegal voting. THE SENTINEL did not know the young man's politics, nor has it an idea who prosecuted him, but if he is as innocent as the Gazette insists, and we hope he is, the young gentleman will experience no trouble before Judge Woods. The attempt to enlarge his arrest into a "democratic outrage" is rather ethereal, since not a half dozen people know anything about the case.

THE Fort Wayne representatives at Indianapolis should enter a vigorous protest against some of the private appropriation jobs advanced in the legislature. There, for instance, is that little scheme which is being pushed by hired attorneys in the legislature for an appropriation to cut out a ledge of rock and let off the water that makes the Kankakee region swampy. The new owners of the thousands of acres of land could well afford to make this improvement themselves, if it will prove such a great boon as it is claimed. Why should the state appropriate $40,000 that will enable such speculators to make a million?

THE Gazette says it did not regard Senator Barrett's letter as intended for publication and given, as a further reason for not immediately considering it, that Senator Barrett did not enclose a copy of his bill, as he stated he would. The Gazette, of course, is at liberty to regard Senator Barrett's communication in the light of a private letter, that is a privilege, but the argument that he did not enclose a copy of the bill will not avail since the Gazette published it in full together with the present law two weeks ago and the editor could have referred to the files of his own paper if he desired to consult the measure. THE SENTINEL was not hasty in the matter nor in the least discourteous. We must commend the Gazette in insisting that there should be no politics in considering the proposed law.

THE Philadelphia Times insists that Colonel Dudley must find a new residence. He was a resident of Indiana until he was wanted for writing the "floaters in blocks of five" letter. Then he lived in New York awhile. In an evil hour he sued three newspapers of that city for libel for publishing the "floater" letter as his. The aforesaid newspapers obtained orders to examine Mr. Dudley himself before answering to his charge of libel. Mr. Dudley didn't want to be examined and went to Washington to live. One of the newspapers then asked for an oral commission to issue to Washington to examine Mr. Dudley. Judge O'Brien decided yesterday that the commission must issue, Mr. Dudley might go to Samoa next. The offense of bringing three libel suits and running away from them is not an extraditable one.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Some of the Measures Yesterday Explained at Some Length.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—The new rule limiting speeches on all questions to five minutes was rigidly enforced in the senate yesterday morning, and the presiding officer's gavel fell with a dull thud upon the marble slab before him as a signal to stop while several speakers were giving utterances to their best sentences.

The Supreme Court Commission Bill.

The house bill to create a supreme court commission came before the senate after the election bill had been passed yesterday morning, with a committee report recommending that it be passed. A minority report adverse to it was presented. Senator Johnson said the bill was another partisan measure. It was unconstitutional and unnecessary. The constitution plainly says that there shall not be more than five supreme court judges. It made no difference if the men who were given judicial power by the legislature were called commissioners instead of judges. If they were to be merely amanuenses the bill might be constitutional, but if that was the intention why were they such to be paid $4,000 a year, the same salary allowed the supreme judges, in addition to which they were to have messengers and other help. He had himself introduced a bill which would provide such service at a cost of $1,500. If those commissioners were to decide cases and assume the functions of judges there could be no doubt of the unconstitutionality of such a bill.

Langestaff's Eight Hour Bill Passes.

Mr. Langestaff's bill to make eight hours constitute a legal day's work for all classes of mechanics and laborers, excepting those engaged in agricultural or domestic labor, was passed by the house yesterday morning. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of the act may be fined $500. Overwork for extra compensation, by agreement between employer and employe, is permitted, but where more than eight hours of labor is exacted or received without such agreement, the penalty may be imposed. There was no discussion of the bill.

Against Local Option.

Local option met its fate in the house. A few days ago Mr. Reynolds succeeded in getting his bill on the calendar as a special order for the morning. There were two reports, majority and minority, upon it. The majority, of course, was against it. Mr. Wilson moved the substitution of the majority report and demanded the previous question, but Mr. Reynolds, the author of the bill was allowed to speak. He declared that, although it might be defeated in this legislature, the time was not far distant when the people would elect representatives who would give them the power to prohibit the liquor traffic. The majority report recommending the indefinite postponement of the bill was adopted by a vote of fifty-five to forty-one, two republicans, Covert and Nugent, of Evansville, voting with the democrats.

Sheriffs Shall Appoint Court Bailiffs.

Senator Foley's bill to amend the revised statutes so as to give the sheriff, instead of the judge, the power to appoint bailiffs for the circuit, superior and criminal courts, was engrossed in the senate Wednesday afternoon. In explaining the purpose of the bill Senator Foley admitted that it was introduced because the republican judges in Marion county had appointed new bailiffs in place of democrats.

Proposed Rental Rates For Telephones.

Mr. Foster's telephone bill has been reported upon favorably by the senate committee on judiciary. It proposes to limit the rental charges for telephones as follows: Towns and cities having a population not exceeding 10,000, in residences $3, in factories $4 and in all other places $5.50. In cities having a population of more than 10,000 and not exceeding 30,000, in residences $8, in factories $4.50 and in all other places of business $8.50. In cities having a population of more than 20,000 and less than 40,000, in residence $3.50, in factories $5 and in all other places of business $4. And in cities having a population of over 40,000, in residences $4, in factories $6 and in all other places of business $5.

The bill passed by a decisive vote, only twenty-six against it.

Caucus Action on Two Bills.

The democratic members of the house last night resolved to caucus not to change the present laws relating to the teaching of German in the public schools, and to pass the bill repealing sections 2,126 and 2,127 of the revised statutes, which make it unlawful to intimidate any man from working or to interfere with the running of trains.

Division of the Legal Printing.

Senator Hudson has introduced a bill which proposes that all legal advertising in each county shall be divided between the two leading partisan papers, but that not more than one-half the present legal rates shall be paid to each publisher.

Legislative Notes.

Mr. Meudenhall introduced in the house a bill requiring the superintendents of poor asylums to send pauper children to township schools.

The house passed a concurrent resolution authorizing the state auditor to pay warrents for light, water and other incidental expenses of the general assembly not exceeding $2,200.

The house under a suspension of the rules, finally passed the senate bill appropriating $187,500 for the construction of new buildings for the School for Feeble Minded Children, and when it receives the signature of the governor, the trustees may proceed to carry out their building plans.

Mr. Shambaugh's supreme court reporter bill was taken up and ordered engrossed. Mr. Shambaugh explained the bill. He showed that it would be a saving to the state of $10,000 a year. Mr. Cullum was afraid that the reports could not be published for $1.50 per volume. Mr. Willard laid up a copy of the revised statutes which he said was published by the state under contract for $1.12.

The public health committee reported favorably the bill to give health officers jurisdiction for two miles from their towns.

The fees and salaries committee reported favorably on the bill to appoint a custodian of public property.

The Beaver lake land bill failed to pass for a lack of a constitutional majority.

MR. OPPENHEIM.

He Attacks the Telephone Company in the House Yesterday.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says:

Mr. Oppenheim, one of the solid men on the democratic side, fought the repeal bill. He said that this bill involved the question whether the Bell telephone company was greater than the state of Indiana. The committee on judiciary reported a bill which allows the telephone people the same rates that they claim they will charge if the law is repealed, but they do not want it. They want no restriction whatever. There is no railroad corporation of any kind coming into this state without being controlled by the state in some manner. "If $3 is too low, we are willing to raise it," said he, "but they arrogantly come to us and say, 'we will not be controlled.'" Continuing Mr. Oppenheim said:

"They have been running in this state fourteen years, yet they cannot tell us what sum they make, and they say we cannot control them in this matter. They say defiantly to us: 'We will take nothing from you but unconditional surrender.' This company is after the legislatures of Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Michigan and other northern states. Mr. Davis asks what has the Ohio legislature done. Passed a law favoring the telephone by one majority. But, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, I care not what Ohio does, so we do what is just. In New York City this unrestricted monopoly has been charging from $12 to $15 per month, when they have put them in for $5 a month. It is not a question of reason, right or wrong with them, but how much can we charge the people for telephones. They took their instruments from the small towns because they claim that they were losing money, but in Fort Wayne they allowed the newspapers to use them free of charge. In the town of Elkhart the Bell telephone was taken out and the Cushman company were going to place their instruments there, but at the instance of the Bell company the United States circuit enjoined the Cushman, so preventing any telephone service there. I will never vote to repeal a law in the interest of the Bell company."

REV. C. A. JOHNSON announces that as a result of much study, "in just thirty-two years from now the electricity stored in the earth will come in contact with the heated matter inside and blow the whole world up." Mr. Johnson is an eligible candidate for an insane asylum.

One Fact

Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla do a cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent these, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them!

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

Free from alcohol and opium; composed of expensive herbs and roots, with a fine, delicate flavoring.

Send for a beautiful book free.

MR. M. W. SIMONS.

He Wins Quite a Victory Over His Plymouth Neighbors.

The Plymouth Democrat has this gossip:

"A meeting was held at the city hall, last Saturday evening, to protest against the acceptance by the council of the proposition of M. W. Simons to light the city at the rate of $2,000 per year, as a result of which four remonstrances, signed in all, by eighty citizens, were presented to the council at its meeting Monday evening. Notwithstanding the protest the proposition was accepted and contract entered into for a term of three years at the above figure. During the year ending February 16, the city was lighted better than ever before in its history for $1,500, which at the time the contract was made was considered very reasonable."

PARIS MONUMENTS.

Monument building is one of the great industries of Paris. There has been no time in two or three centuries when Paris was not building a monument to some distinguished man.

L'Arc do Triomphe, built by Napoleon to commemorate himself, is the most conspicuous example, of course. Before that he caused a column to be erected in the Place du Chatelet to keep in memory his early victories in Italy and Egypt. And what is the Vendome Column, wrough from cannon captured from Russians and Austrians, but a monument to the distinguished Corsican?

The Hotel des Invalides, a soldiers' hospital and home, is a monument to Louis XIV., for he originated and endowed it. So great is the passion among the French for monuments that in the Revolution they converted a grand and imposing church, Ste. Genevieve, into the Pantheon—the name it yet bears—a tomb for "the great men whom France delights to honor," as the inscription reads. Voltaire and Rousseau were entombed there, but when the Bourbons were restored to power their bones were hustled out with little ceremony, and buried, God knows where. Victor Hugo was the last great man to find sepulture there.

On the rue Rivoli, on the spot where Joanne Darc fell wounded while assailing one of the city's gates, is an equestrian statute of the Anna Dickinson of her day.

Among the later monuments that have been erected is one to Alexandar Dumas, pere, who occupies a comfortable arm-chair on a big mass of granite, and has an easy, rollicking air, quite consonant with one's idea of the man who wrote so delightfully of d'Artignan and his fellow musquitiers.

There is a mortuary pyramid faced by a statute of Gambetta in the Place du Carrousel, but it won't remain long after the Republic disappears. Lamertine has a monument in Passy, near a little chalet given him by the municipality of Paris, in which he died miserably and almost forgotten.

A statue of Victor Hugo adorns a carrefor on Avenue d'Eylau, not far from the house in which he breathed his last, and it is proposed to honor the memory of Balzac in a similar way. France builds monuments to her great men when she sets out to do it, but we make a big talk about it immediately after a great man's death, start a monument fund, and that is the last of it.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, or pneumonia, Hood's Sarsaparilla will give strength to the system, and expel all poison from the blood.

From the start, the shadows have read, Pyle's Pearline is mightier than soap, muscle and washboard combined. It is the modern soap. Nowadays one cannot afford to reject a new idea because it promises "big things." These are days of "big things." Wide awake men and women are looking for them. She who refuses the aid of PEARLINE is behind the times—far behind. She might as well reject the comfort and aid of the steam car—sewing machine—telegraph—electric light, etc., because she does not believe in them. Millions appreciate Pearline, and have for years. Millions more will appreciate it—you will—why not begin at once to use it. Its prodigious popularity proves its merit—you have everything to gain, nothing to lose, therefore try it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, but sold by all good grocers. 136 Manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York

HER MAJESTY'S EMPIRE.

Every boy and girl has heard that the sun never sets on the British Empire, and the statement is literally true. The Empress Victoria's dominions extend around the globe in a ring, so nearly unbroken that the sun is continually rising on some portion while it is setting on another.

England has the faculty of acquisitiveness largely developed, and when she desires to extend her empire she has a free-and-easy way of extending it, which elicits amazement if not admiration from the civilized world. And this process of extention is continually going on.

Within a few years Fiji has become British; and so have enormous provinces on the northwestern frontier of India and the whole kingdom of Upper Burmah. The foundations have been laid for a great colony in Borneo, which will one day probably absorb the whole island.

Half the great island of New Guinea, almost a continent in extent, has become de jure, if not de facto, the territory of the Queen. Great tracts of land, including the whole of Zululand, have been acquired in South Africa. Advance has been made on the Congo. Egypt is in English control. Berbar and Khartoum seem likely to become British. Cyprus will hardly return to Turkey, and in South America British possessions have been extended.—Golden Dawn.

PHILADELPHIA'S pet hippopotamus was treated to a Turkish bath the other day to cure a cold, and the report of the attending physician is that the experiment was a grand success. Every well-equipped menagerie will travel hereafter with a Turkish bath attachment for the hippopotamus, and for a small fee the wondering patrons of the show will be permitted to see the animal in its great act of sweating rivers of blood whenever it has caught a cold.

It is a fact that there is not an ounce of Pond's Extract sold which is not put up in their own bottles by Pond's Extract Co. It cannot be bought except in the company's bottles. No druggist can make it. No druggist can "put it up" for you. The only way to get the real Pond's Extract is to buy a bottle with the company's strip over the cork, their name blown in the glass, and their landscape trade mark on the buff wrapper. Any druggist who would deceive you about this by selling you a cheap, spurious imitation as Pond's Extract, saying that he "buys it and puts it in bottles himself," is not a safe man to sell medicine or anything else.

A NEBRASKA man has just died from the bite of a mule, says the Carthage (Mo.) Democrat. It adds: This is the first actual proof we have that the mule's bite is as deadly as his sting.

"What Drug Will Scour The e Engtish Stence?"

Wicked Macbeth, who murdered good King Duncan, asked this question in his despair. Thousands of victims of disease are daily asking "What will scour the impurities from my blood and bring me health"? Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do it. When the purple life tide is sluggish, causing drowsiness, headache and loss of appetite, use this wonderful vitalizer, which never fails. It forces the liver into perfect action, drives out superfluous bile, brings the glow of health to the cheek and the natural sparkle to the eye. All druggists.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. mar-18-1y

Of every sort and kind,
Instead of going through
the world
Like men both deaf and blind.

And you can be as wise as they,
If you but choose to buy
The Soap that's called the SANTA CLAUS—
Its good effects to try.

The fifth annual concert of the Fort Wayne City band, will be held at the Masonic Temple next Wednesday night, and from present indications it will be the most successful of the series of musical entertainments given by this popular organization. The soloists are Fred Austin, cornet soloist, late with Gilmore, and Wm. Moebius, violin soloist, late of the famous Bilse orchestra, of Berlin, and afterwards soloist at the Crystal Palace, London. Both gentlemen have national reputations and their coming here is a matter for congratulation. The sale of seats has been gratifyingly large and there is every reason to believe that the Temple will be crowded to the doors on the night of the concert. Everybody in Fort Wayne takes a just pride in its superb musical organization, which has the reputation of being the best in the state and which asks for the support of our citizens only in this way, and that but once a year. THE SENTINEL hopes that they will have to turn people away and that the concert will be the huge success it deserves to be.

A novelty in the way of legislation is announced from South Australia. "Boys under eighteen years of age dare not smoke!" and everybody, when they catch cold, have to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, as the legislators regard it the only safe remedy for coughs and colds.

THE RUBS OF THE WHEEL.

A Couple of Accidents Recorded—The Pennsylvania Company's Instruction Car—Other News.

Master Mechanic Potter went to Chicago last night.

Henry Brockman, of the Bass works, went home sick yesterday.

The Pittsburg road pays its employes to-morrow. This is the big pay day of the month.

Captain J. P. Powers, of Toledo, passenger agent of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday.

Harry Pollmanns, clerk in the road foreman's office of the Pittsburg, is attending the funeral of his grandmother, at Valparaiso, to-day.

Engineer Jackson says that the Lafayette collision was caused by the failure of the brakes on the engine of the limited to hold the train.

The baby born in a Pullman car, last week, has been named Pullman Conant. One of the Pullmans gave the mother $50 as a starter for the young man.

W. H. Baker, the machinist at the Pittsburg works, has postponed his visits to Bloomingdale, on account of the ghost that haunts that suburb.

D. O'Connor, of the Pittsburg machine shops, who had been absent for several days on account of sickness, returned to work again this morning.

Some of the brass stolen Wednesday night, from the Wabash road, was found yesterday, near the Kerr Murray foundry. There is yet no clue to the thieves.

Henry Boedeker, of the Bass works, had his foot badly injured yesterday by a car wheel dropping on it, and he will be confined to his home for several days.

Two prominent young railroad clerks have been notified to stop frequenting Bloomingdale. We narrated the other day the danger that faced a young man who visited that suburb.

Assistant Foreman Scheid, of the Pittsburg machine shops, had his foot operated on yesterday by Dr. Myers. He is now improving, and the men hope to see him on duty again in a few days.

It is stated that the Pennsylvania company will test, on the main line, steel rail weighing 100 pounds to the yard, the heaviest rail now in use east of Pittsburg being eighty-five pounds to the yard.

Henry Eix, of the Bass blacksmith shops, was burned quite badly about the eye yesterday, by red hot scales from a molten piece of iron, which he was pounding, flying into his face. He will be kept from duty for several days.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has purchased but two railroads this week—one the Bell Gap road, twenty-five miles in length, and the other the Clearfield and Jefferson road, thirty-five miles in length. Both roads lead to extensive and valuable coal fields.

Anthony Joretzki, of the Bass works, has returned to work after a two days' absence, on account of sickness. He has worked for the firm for three years and has not been absent from duty before, even for a single day. He is one of the most industrious men at the Bass works.

Yesterday was the last day that the Wabash road sold thousand-mile tickets at $20, and they went off in a lively manner, the scalpers loading themselves with as many as they could get hold of. Some of the passenger men say that raising the price of these tickets from $20 to $25 is only a scheme adopted by the Wabash to dispose of a large quantity of them.

Mr. Israel, the traveling passenger agent of the Illinois Central, was at the Pittsburg office last evening, calling on Ticket Agent Ross. While he was there a passenger giving his name as "Mr. Lazarus" stepped up to the window to secure a sleeping berth on the fast train. Israel didn't know the passenger, but his name justified him in seeking an introduction and the two strangers passed a pleasant time together.

AN INSTRUCTION CAR.

The Pennsylvania company has just turned out of its shops at Altoona, an instruction car for the traveling exemplification of the Westinghouse appliances. It is sixty-eight feet long, and finished in standard Pennsylvania style. Under one end of the car is a four-wheeled truck, and under the other a six-wheeled truck, with one brake-shoe on each wheel. Both platforms are equipped with the Westinghouse friction bumper. In one end of the car an elegant office has been fitted up, and in the main room is found a complete exhibition of everything pertaining to air brakes. It is the purpose to have this car travel over the different railroads, exhibiting its working and instructing the men in the practical handling of the different appliances.
